

HERE'S the POINT

By SPENCE HELD

When this prowler visited our house Saturday night, he didn't realize that he was practically writing a column for me.

We had suspected for some time that a prowler was hanging around at night but didn't take it too seriously. . . . And late one night, about three weeks ago, when I turned on the back-yard floodlight and carried out the garbage, a car suddenly came to life and roared down the alley. I figured it probably was some neighborhood neckers and thought no more about it.

This was different. Along about 12:45 a.m., Sunday, I was informed there was a guy on the back porch. I grabbed my flashlight and stalked purposefully toward the rear of the house; I switched on the floodlight and scanned the scene.

Nobody in sight. But I heard a light patter of feet, and in a minute or two a car roared down the alley and disappeared. Inspecting the premises, I found that a sawhorse had been placed just below the back porch and a wet footprint was visible there on the cement patio. . . . The miscreant evidently had used the sawhorse to mount the porch; when he saw me through the all-glass rear partition he jumped down and took off through the shrubbery for the rear gate.

Well, I'm assuming that he doesn't read this column and will come back. I'm preparing a circle of wolf traps below the porch, plus an elaborate Rube Goldberg device.

When he sneaks across the patio and approaches the porch, all Hell will break loose.

First, a cowbell will clang. Then the light will flash on, and a large box camera, zeroed in on X Marks the Spot (where the footprint was), will take the prowler's picture.

Then I will arrive from an unexpected direction and beat his ears off with a baseball bat.

Some of my advisors recommend that I invest in a gun and fill him full of buckshot. . . . Not a bad idea. Still, there's probably more honest satisfaction in cracking a prowler with a bat than in shooting him—and, besides, it isn't as messy.

Last week I suggested a four-point program for handling young hoodlums. This may be summarized in four words:

Get tough with 'em!
(Our porch prowler may very well be an old hoodlum, but somehow I doubt it.)

It's a cinch that high school hoodlums should be expelled, at the very least.

My alma tomato, the Tribune, dredges up new evidence daily that the situation is getting out of hand in San Diego. The good kids—and they're certainly a great majority in the Peninsula area—are beginning to realize it, too, and they can help by pointing the finger of scorn at the hoodlums and by refusing to be intimidated by that phony epithet, "square."

I repeat: Get tough with 'em!

Traffic Accidents Total 14,224 Here

San Diego County's contribution to the nation's horrible traffic toll in 1955 was at the rate of one fatality, every 48 hours.

The financial loss incurred by the deaths of 177 county citizens totaled $19,470,000.

There were 14,224 accidents on county streets and highways and 5,432 persons injured, in addition to those killed.

The figures were made public this week by officials of the San Diego County Traffic Safety Council after the National Safety Council had announced the highway death toll for the nation last year was 38,300, or a daily death rate of 105 persons to make the automobile the No. 1 accident killer.

The State death toll from traffic accidents was 3,431.

Ronald T. Strong, local Council president, again sounded a warning for safer driving, pointing out that in January and the first week of February, 15 County residents were killed in traffic accidents, compared to 14 last year.

Anglers Haul In Lunkers; Whale Parade Continues

Although the success of deep sea fishermen has bordered on the exceptional all winter, catches of red cod, ling, and cow cod hit a new high this week when single boat hauls ranged as high as 550 fish.

As a matter of fact, it was a week of large catches in more ways than one, for many of the fish taken were regular old lunkers. Big lings were especially active.

At least two season's marks fell by the wayside and more were threatened. The Worrier VII checked in 46 ling cod for the best take of fish of that species and the Fisherette set a new high for all-round catches by taking 550 rock fish of all species.

One of the largest lings of the week proved to be a 241 pounder caught by H. T. Warner, Hollywood, but numerous fish exceeding the 20 pound mark were checked in.

One of the best all-around catches of the week was made by a Point Loma angler, Oliver Meyer, who accounted for seven big lings and filled the remainder of his legal limit with big reds and crows.

The whale migration also kept step with the increase in fish catches, and sportfishing boats engaged in seeking out the big mammals for the benefit of spectators and photographers reported that there was a steady parade of them off Point Loma.

Daily trips leave from the municipal sportfishing pier, foot of Fenelon, at 12:30 p.m., and weekend trips are scheduled at 10 a. m., 12:30, and 3 p.m.

Colt Wins Again

Frank W. Allen, chairman, was assisted in the contest by Ocean Beach Lions Club members, Leonard Van Stelle, Tom Arnold, E. Charles Edwards and Lee Coley.

Pete will compete with other contestants in the San Diego area on March 20 at Crown Point Elementary School. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William Colt, 3963 La Cresta Drive.

SCHOOLS ART EXHIBIT OPENS TODAY AT FINE ARTS GALLERY

Youth takes over the spotlight at San Diego's Fine Arts Gallery in Balboa Park today with the opening of a major art exhibit featuring the best work of students in the city's secondary schools. The exhibit will be open daily, except Mondays, through March 4.

An amazing variety of art and craft work—some 300 examples in all—will be exhibited by students from all junior and senior high schools and San Diego Junior College and Vocational School. The exhibit, entitled "Art '56", will occupy three rooms at the gallery.

Margaret Erdt, city schools supervisor of art, said that "Art '56" will highlight the opportunities of the "open" curriculum as an integral feature of the schools' art program.

The "open" curriculum permits each teacher to plan an individualized program of instruction within a broad framework, she explained. The result is a program which meets the needs of different creative, cultural and intellectual levels within each class. Variety of technique and interpretation is encouraged by such an approach, as will be evidenced by the exhibits.

Among the flat work exhibits will be more than 150 samples of paintings and drawings done in oils, lacquers, water colors, pencil, pen and ink, chalk, charcoal, crayon and combinations of these.

An equal number of craft items will include wood, wire, string, clay and papier-mache sculpture; plastic work, printing on textiles and paper, a variety of ceramics and pottery ware, marionettes and puppets, model houses, plaster carving, mobiles, jewelry and wood carving.

Cabrillo Nat'l. Monument May Be Expanded

Congressman Bob Wilson reported from Washington, D.C., this week that "it begins to look as though our long fight to expand Cabrillo National Monument on Point Loma at last is going to pay off."

In a letter to the Peninsula News, Wilson added: "Philip Kelleher, House Armed Services Committee counsel, who has been working on this project with me, thinks there is a good chance now that Cabrillo Monument will get the additional 66 acres it requires for adequate expansion to provide more parking space, nature paths, etc."

"The enlargement and improvement of the national shrine is tied up with a pending Navy-Army transaction involving several hundred acres of Ft. Rosecrans land."

"Kelleher and I have held countless conferences with Navy officials, trying to make sure the monument grounds would be expanded in any real estate deal at Ft. Rosecrans. Both the House and Senate Armed Services Committees must approve whatever agreement the Army and Navy eventually reach."

Parents Invited To School Board Meeting At Dewey

Fourth in a series of evening neighborhood meetings of the Board of Education will be held next Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 7:30 p.m. in the auditorium of Dewey Elementary School at 3251 Rosecrans St., north of the Naval Training Center.

Kenneth R. Rearwin, board president, said the meeting at Dewey was scheduled especially for parents, school staff members and other residents of the west central and southwestern sections of the city, including Hillcrest, Mission Hills, Old Town, Frontier, Loma Portal, Point Loma and Ocean Beach.

Rearwin said this is the second year the board has scheduled periodic neighborhood meetings designed to make it easier for the public to attend a regular business session during nonworking hours. The meetings result in increased public understanding of the functions and responsibilities of the school board and central administrative staff working together, he said.

With Don Chamberlin, Dewey principal, coordinating the activity, principals and PTA units of 17 schools in the areas concerned will cooperate in urging the attendance of parents and other residents. A social half-hour will precede the meeting at 7 p.m., giving the public an opportunity to meet and talk informally with board members and school district officers. Refreshments will be served.

Attendance at earlier neighborhood board meetings this year has ranged from 175 to 300.

PARADE OF PROGRESS TO OPEN WEDNESDAY IN BALBOA PARK

A show described as "the largest and most unusual of its type in the world" will roll into San Diego on Tuesday, February 14, in preparation for a six-day run. It is the General Motors Parade of Progress, a spectacular free scientific exposition, which will be set up at Balboa Park on the Zoo parking area.

This will be the only showing in the San Diego area, according to GM officials. Thousands of visitors are expected to tour the colorful "circus of science" during its stay. It will be open from Wednesday, Feb. 15 through Monday, Feb. 20. Show hours will be from 7 to 10 p.m. on opening night, and from 2 to 10 p.m. daily thereafter.

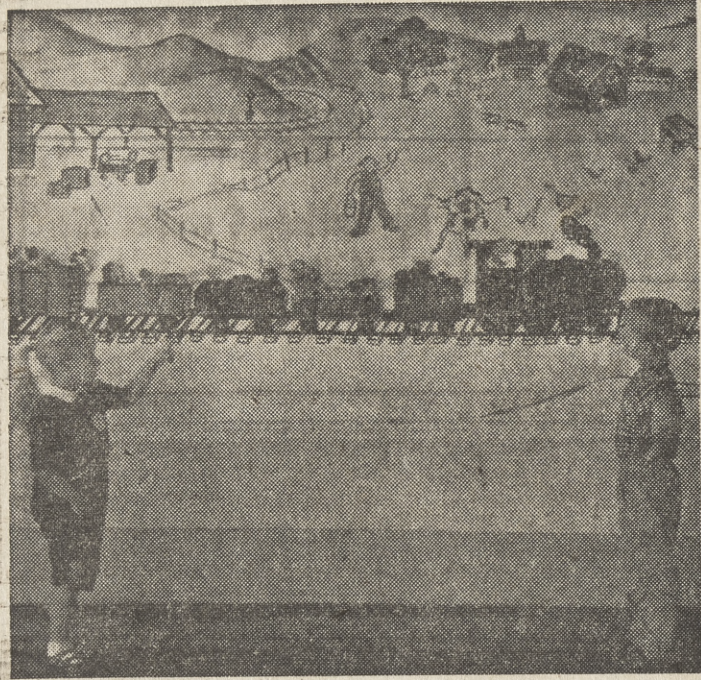

Purpose of the Parade of Progress is to promote a better understanding of research and engineering; to give people a deeper faith in the American way of life; and to inspire young people to take up scientific and engineering careers.

The show carries its own "big top," the Aerodome—described as the only one of its type in existence. The huge tent, with a seating capacity of 1,250, has no poles inside to obstruct the vision. It is suspended from arched aluminum girders, and resembles an upside-down umbrella.

The Aerodome will be the scene of a 40-minute stage show which will be presented six times daily on week days, and eight times on weekends.

More Boys Than Girls Enrolled In Parent Participation Class

"We have 16 little boys and their mothers enrolled in one of our parent participation classes," sighed Wayne W. Laughery, principal of Midway Adult Center, "and only four little girls. We're eager to find more children of feminine gender before our total enrollment of 30 is reached for this class."

The Parent Participation class meets this semester every Monday, Wednesday and Friday for the children. A well-balanced play school program including music, creative activities and free play has been developed for the children. Mothers attend one morning a week and also attend a two-hour evening meeting each week.

These classes are aimed at developing a better parent-child understanding. The child enjoys an enriched pre-school program and gets ready to enter kindergarten.

Children will be accepted for these classes between the ages of 3-5 years. For more information call AC-3-1671.

Happy to be back in this area once more are Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Renteria who are now moving into their new home in the 4000 block of Alicia Dr. What makes this move especially gratifying is the fact that shortly after the purchase was made three years ago, a transfer overseas prevented the couple living in it at that time.

From Canada have come Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clarke and their 3-year-old daughter, Jacqueline, to move into their recently purchased home in the 1800 block on Catalina Blvd.

Moving into their own home in the 4600 block of Orchard Ave. are Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Fisher Jr. and their two youngsters, David and Allen.

OUTSTANDING—A sparkling colorama of jewels and flowers marked the eighth annual Calendar Luncheon of the Point Loma Assembly Thursday at the Assembly clubhouse.

Twelve tables, representing the months of the year, were cleverly decorated with each month's jewel and flower. Members were seated at their birthday table.

The ladies in charge of the tables had their assignment eight months ago, and many of them laid their plans well in advance. So it was with Mrs. William Sample, Jr. and her mother, Mrs. C. A. Shasteen, who were in charge of the March table.

Spring Flowers Together they planned to use a floral of huge jonquils, softened with acacia blossoms, on a turquoise cloth. Two weeks before the luncheon, Mrs. Shasteen passed away. However, on the luncheon table Thursday was the centerpiece she had helped design, an arrangement of yellow jonquils and acacia, fashioned by Mrs. Sample—a beautiful tribute to her mother.

Copper enameled earrings set off place cards and were favors at August's table, decorated by Mrs. John W. Martin and Mrs. Clair Seely. The earrings of modern design were made by Mrs. Martin, who is an adult education teacher. Copper-sprayed magnolia leaves and copper colored candles on a rich brown burlap covering, completed the table plan.

The ingenuity of Mrs. John Shellabarger and Mrs. Walter Zable was displayed for January in giant gold "rings" set with enormous garnet stones. Mrs. Shellabarger used upside-down brass basket holders for the rings and glass frogs covered with red cellophane for the jewels.

Green and White Green net, gathered and fastened with springs of white flowers formed a dainty table covering for the May centerpiece. It consisted of white lilies-of-the-valley, entwined around eucalyptus stems, which had been sprayed and sprinkled with glitter. Mrs. Walter S. Tatum and Mrs. C. D. Palmer decorated.

Artificial flowers were made of crepe paper when the real posies were not available. Mrs. E. C. Hurst's asters for September were thought to be real as well as the lovely cosmos for October made by Mmes. Thomas D. Marks and Charles J. Hassell.

OVERHEARD—Groaning from his labors of moving a banana tree over the weekend, Bob Runnals, 3904 Santa Cruz St., received the following advice from his friend, Cloyd Coates: "I belong to Exercises Anonymous. If you feel the urge to work around the house next weekend, call me and I'll come over and talk you out of it."

PARTY—Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Langston, Jr., 1914 Chatsworth Blvd., served Peruvian pisco at a cocktail party for 25 guests Sunday afternoon. Incidentally, the cocktails are made of "pisco"—a Peruvian wine unavailable in U.S. It's combined with orange and lemon juice and sugar. The wine was a gift last year from a native Peruvian. Following the party, the Langstons and their guests attended the Pan American Counselors Tea at El Cortez Hotel.

Tip—Tired of that ecru or white hand-crocheted table cloth? "Dye it," says Mrs. E. C. Hurst, 1237 Moana. "I dye mine in the washing machine. It's real simple to do. If it fades, I just use another box of tint."

Ready to accept the big challenge? On Thursday, December 1, the second annual "S.D. Day", the challenge to every community will be: Not a single accident during the 24-hour period—in daylight or darkness.

Safe-Driving Day is sponsored by the President's Committee for Traffic Safety in cooperation with prominent national organizations. It is based on the idea that traffic accidents can be greatly reduced if motorists and pedestrians fulfill their moral and civic responsibility for safety.

This year, as last, S.D. Day is meant to show that the idea works—that motorists and pedestrians hold the real key to traffic safety. The first S.D. Day, last December, produced a reduction in the national toll of deaths, injuries and accidents. This December 1, everyone in every state and community will be asked to join in bringing about a much greater reduction.

S.D. Day 1955 will further remind motorists and pedestrians that if they can reduce accidents on one day, they can do so every day of the year. It will call attention to the importance of year-around support by every individual for existing safety programs of proven worth.

Scorekeeping of fatalities began on November 21—S.D. Day minus ten—and will continue through S.D. Day plus ten. Reports on the cumulative results will be published by the President's Committee.

A closing thought: in motoring as in golf, a good driver helps keep the score down.

In Cleveland, Ohio, according to the National Automobile Club, it is against the law to drive with someone on your lap.

WASHINGTON
LetterBy BOB WILSON
Member of Congress

We're getting encouraging support from all sections of the country for our bill to give the Southern California tuna fishing industry some long-range protection from foreign competition.

Members of the House from virtually every region either have introduced bills identical to mine or have written me to say they are planning to sponsor the legislation soon.

23 identical bills already have been dropped in the House hopper, and there are more to come in the weeks ahead. The more support we can muster for the legislation, the better chance it will have for passage in the House of Representatives.

It's gratifying to know, too, that other segments of the domestic fishing industry aside from the tuna fishermen are behind our bill. This cross-the-board endorsement, of course, will give the measure an extra boost as it moves through the House Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee and on to the Rules Committee.

The latter group has the responsibility for sending legislation to the House floor for action.

Chairman Herbert Bonner (D-N.C.), by the way, has promised me his Merchant Marine and Fisheries Committee will hold hearings on the legislation very soon.

Perhaps the bill has caught on with industry because one of its chief provisions is the establishing of a national policy which recognizes the importance of the domestic fishing enterprise to our national welfare and security. Congressional recognition of this policy would go a long way toward giving the executive branch of government new incentives to go to bat for the fishing industry.

The policy goes hand-in-hand with another provision aimed at setting up protection for an industry which for more than a quarter-century has given San Diego one of its largest payrolls. This is a section which would create an Assistant Commerce Secretary for Fisheries and shift the Commercial Fisheries Division of the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service from the Interior to the Commerce Department.

When Pulling a Nail

A common problem in any household is how to pull a nail without damaging finished wood surfaces. Popular Mechanics suggests the following solution, as illustrated:

Take a rubber plate scraper and slot it as shown. When a nail is pulled, the hammer head is rested on the scraper blade.

For a larger shield, the home craftsman can cut a section from an old rubber sink pad or car floor mat.

HEALTH FOR ALL

"This experience has been very rewarding." Those were the words she believed it or not, of a young woman leaving a tuberculosis hospital after seven months of treatment. A victim of one of the most serious diseases known to man, she was nevertheless able to say she had gained by it.

A career girl with a good job and a fine future ahead of her, her first reaction when the doctor told her she had TB was to try to forget the whole thing. But let her tell it in her own words.

"I didn't feel sick. I was lucky. The disease had not progressed very far. This was my life and I could do with it as I pleased. No one was going to make me go into a hospital."

She recalled the patient efforts of her doctor to explain why the hospital was a must. The deciding factor was the terrible knowledge that as a person with active TB she was a source of infection to others. So, "I left my job, phoned my friends, packed my bag and took off," she says.

Once in the hospital, she decided to make the most of it. Books were available, a record player, a TV set. She learned to knit, tried drawing and working with clay.

"How astonished I was to discover I was unable to get to all the things I wanted to do. Some people tried things they had never done before, others had time to continue along lines they had begun. Some learned a foreign language," she recalls.

"Most of all, there is time for some pretty straight thinking, time to face oneself, to try to discover just what you are, how you got there, where you are going, how you are going to get there, just what you are anyway."

Of course, there were bad times, dark hours when the outside world looked most attractive and when time seemed to stretch ahead endlessly. She was tempted several times to leave the hospital. But she knew she would not be able to keep to the proper routine when surrounded with family and friends. She stuck it out.

Seven months in the hospital, and then five more before she goes back to her job. But she goes back with firmer knowledge of herself and what she wants to do with her life. She has made an opportunity out of an experience which might have been a tragedy.

HOW TO FOOL CAR BURGLARS

by CAROL LANE
WOMEN'S TRAVEL DIRECTOR
SHELL OIL COMPANY

HERE ARE SOME TIPS TO HELP YOU FOOL CAR BURGLARS

1. WHEN YOU PARK YOUR CAR ON THE STREET, CLOSE ALL WINDOWS AND LOCK ALL DOORS. REMEMBER TO TAKE THE KEYS WITH YOU DON'T LEAVE THEM IN THE CAR.
2. AVOID PARKING ON DARK, LITTLE-TRAVELED STREETS. A CAR THIEF NEEDS TIME AND SECURITY TO BREAK INTO THE CAR, WIRE THE IGNITION AND GET IT STARTED. ALSO, AVOID PARKING OVERNIGHT ON ANY STREET.
3. DON'T LEAVE YOUR CAR PARKED A LONG TIME, ANYWHERE, WITHOUT MAKING PERIODIC CHECKS.
4. DON'T LEAVE VALUABLE ARTICLES, SUCH AS LUGGAGE OR CLOTHING, IN PLAIN SIGHT IN YOUR PARKED CAR. THEY TEMPT A WOULD-BE BURGLAR. LOCK VALUABLES IN THE LUGGAGE COMPARTMENT.
5. IF YOU BUY A USED CAR, BE SURE THAT TITLE PAPERS CORRESPOND WITH THE DESCRIPTION OF THE CAR.
6. MAKE A PERMANENT RECORD OF THE MOTOR AND SERIAL NUMBERS OF YOUR CAR. THIS WILL HELP THE AUTHORITIES AND YOUR INSURANCE COMPANY FIND YOUR CAR IN THE EVENT IT'S STOLEN.

Takes Grandma's Advice

Grandma had two favorite cures for the common cold — red flannel underwear and baking soda and lemon juice. Aren't you glad pretty Celeste Ravel decided against the red underwear when she sat down on a cake of ice to pose for this picture? Life wasn't always this chilly for Celeste. A few months ago, she was cavorting under the California sun as Illinois' entry in the Miss Universe contest in Long Beach. Back in her windy home town, the Chicago beauty queen came down with the sniffles and her grandmother said to her, "Child — when I was a girl, I drank baking soda and lemon juice to cure my colds. It worked then, and doctors say it's still one of the best cold relievers available." So, Celeste is seen following Grandma's advice — and, it's good advice for you and your family during National Break A Cold Season and any other time, too.

Look Ma . . . No Hands

That's right . . . you don't need hands to steer this craft. You merely shift your weight in the direction you want to go and the boat follows along. There's no steering wheel, just a safety-type throttle for controlling speed. This modern counterpart of the bicycle built for two skims the waves at a snappy 25 m.p.h. when using a Mercury Mark 7 outboard. Water skimming requires less skill than aquaplaning or skiing, and is gaining tremendous popularity with youthful speed-minded skippers.

Mark Feb. 29 On Your Calendar—Expert To Discuss Safety Belts

A national authority on safe driving will appear in San Diego to speak on the value of safety belts in automobiles. He is William W. Harper of Pasadena, consulting accident physicist, who will speak at 8 p.m. February 29 in Roosevelt Junior High School Auditorium. The lecture sponsored by the San Diego Altrusa Club will be open to the public, free of charge. The club, a service organization, composed of executive and professional women, is sponsoring Harper's appearance as part of its current campaign to educate the public in life-saving importance of the safety devices. Harper, who has had 20 years experience in the technical investigation of traffic collisions, is considered one of the nation's leading experts on safety belt use. He will illustrate his lecture with slides. The club also will have on hand safety-belt-equipped automobiles. Operations of the belts will be demonstrated by Maureen Connolly Brinker, former world tennis champion, and Phyllis Fleming, Miss San Diego. Members of the Altrusa Project Committee include Mmes. Enid Young, Jolietta Jacobs, Natalie Edwin, Misses Rosa Parsons, Joyce Stokes and Pauline des Granges.

Cookies For Waist-Line Watchers

There's no need to deny yourself an occasional dip into the cookie jar when it's filled with Orange-Nut Drops, a crisp, sweet cookie developed especially for dieters. This confection, although filled with nuts, hits a low 34 on calorie meter. Secret of the cookie's low-calorie success is that it's sweetened entirely with Sucaryl, the newly improved non-calorie sweetener which can be used in cooking and baking without becoming bitter or losing its sweetness. Along with the cookies, you can also help yourself to a tall, ice-creaming glass of lemonade or iced tea. Sweeten it just the way you like it, with Sucaryl, and you'll have scarcely a calorie to fret about. In iced drinks use Sucaryl solution, or crush and dissolve the tablets separately. For all of your sweetening, one Sucaryl tablet or 1/8 teaspoon of solution is equal to about 1 teaspoon of sugar.

Orange-Nut Drops
1/2 cup butter or margarine
2 teaspoons Sucaryl solution, or 16 Sucaryl tablets*
1 egg
2 tablespoons orange juice
1 tablespoon coarsely grated orange rind
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1-2/3 cups sifted flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup skim milk, soured with 1 tablespoon vinegar
1/2 cup chopped English walnuts
Cream butter in small mixer bowl on high speed until well-softened. Add Sucaryl solution, egg, orange juice, orange rind, and vanilla. Mix dry ingredients together and add alternately with the soured milk. Blend in nuts. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto a greased cookie sheet. Bake in a moderate oven (375°F.) 18 to 20 minutes, or until nicely browned on top. Store cooled cookies in a container with a loose cover. *If Sucaryl tablets are used, dissolve in the orange juice. Makes 56 crisp cookies. Each contains 34 CALORIES; 0.7 grams fat; 2.3 grams carbohydrate. If made with sugar, contain 19 CALORIES.

Skiing the year around is now possible above Timberline Lodge on Mount Hood in Oregon, according to the National Automobile Club. During warmer months a snow cat will take skiers to the high snow fields.

The Cerebral Palsy Foundation reports that much can be done in the training, education and rehabilitation of cerebral palsied children. Parents may phone the Red Feather service at BE-9-8472.

"Whirlybird" helps string a telephone line. More and more uses are being found for helicopters in the telephone business. Not long ago, one was used to help a telephone crew string over two miles of wire across several steep canyons loaded with brush and poison oak. After poles were put up on the hill tops, the copter laid a rope across the poles' cross-arms. Then the wire was fastened to the rope and the crew pulled it into position from pole to pole. In this way, a job that would have taken a week was done in an hour and a half. Corner-cutters like this do a lot of, of course, to speed up the expansion of your telephone system. The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

WASHINGTON AND "SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

This being an election year, Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson finds many ready to tell him about birds and bees.

Perhaps not birds, but assuredly bees, because honey, stored in 50 gallon drums, is one of the farm commodities held by the government to the tune of almost $3 billion. Storage costs alone run around $800,000 per day.

Indeed, Secretary Benson has large problems. For example, he has C.W. Harder about $2 billion worth of wheat he would gladly give away to foreign nations, with U. S. paying all transportation costs.

There is also over 8 million bales of government owned surplus cotton. An attempt is now being made to shuck off a million or so bales to foreign nations at a price between 6 and 8 cents per pound under prevailing market.

This does not make foreign cotton producing nations happy. Neither does it gladden American textile manufacturers fighting for life against flood of cheap textile imports made by labor paid as little as 14 cents per hour. They just can't see the justice of subsidizing these foreign competitors at U. S. taxpayers' expense by giving them cheaper cotton.

Actually, price of quality cotton is held to be too low. But market is glutted with short staple cotton... less than one inch. This junk cotton is what the government is getting. So U. S. taxpayers are getting the short end of the cotton, too.

© National Federation of Independent Business

There could perhaps be some justification if billions were helping family sized, independent farms. But figures prove otherwise. For example, in 1954, average loan by government on cotton price support was $239.

But huge British owned Delta & Pine Land Co. in Mississippi received from government for unsold cotton $1,232,742.

The Delta and Pine Land incident is just one of many causing embarrassment in Washington.

So Benson proposes setting up plan to change land from surplus crop production acreage to soil building acreage. Thus, wheat and corn land would be taken out of production, planted to trees and grass.

Plan envisions farmer being paid for cost of planting and also reimbursed for an annual return from these diverted acres.

But to avoid any more million dollar plus government payments to huge corporation farms, Secretary Benson proposes to limit payments to any one farmer to $5000 per year.

This viewpoint is not going to influence people and win friends for Benson in some quarters.

It will be interesting to see what happens to his proposals. Many observers feel Secretary Benson in past three years would have made great strides with farm situation if there had not been so many throwing banana peels in his path.

Unfortunately, when agricultural secretaries retire, they do not write their memoirs.

Because Secretary Benson could undoubtedly write a most engrossing book, even perhaps selecting as a title "Boobytraps I Found Along the Potomac."

This Is Mosquito-Breeding Time— Health Department Urges Action

Dr. J. B. Askew, Director of Public Health, urged all citizens to join with the Department of Public Health in an effort to prevent a mosquito problem from occurring as a result of recent rains.

Dr. Askew pointed out that the Department conducts a year-round mosquito control program of larviciding salt marshes, drainage ditches and other known breeding places of mosquitoes. "This is successful during the dry summer months when it is not too difficult to locate breeding places," he said. "However, during wet weather it is impossible for the Department mosquito control personnel to locate and treat all of the mosquito breeding places, especially those around the home," he added.

According to Dr. Askew, the mosquito population nearly always shows a large increase following rains. This is often due to the fact that we provide mosquitoes an excellent place to breed in our backyards, he said. The most frequent breeding places found around the home are in tin cans, barrels, swimming pools and improper drainage around septic tanks and faucets in the yard, he said.

To eliminate mosquito breeding around the home, Dr. Askew advised home owners to follow the simple precautions listed below:

1. Flatten all cans so they will not hold water.
2. If water barrels are used, cover the top with a fine mesh screen wire.
3. Fill low spots around the home where water may stand.
4. Repair leaking faucets, coolers and other sources of standing water.
5. Keep drainage ditches cleared of rubbish and vegetation that prevent the flow of water.
6. Keep fish and stock ponds clean and stocked with mosquito fish. (Mosquito fish are available free of charge from the Department of Public Health.)

"Frequently non-emergency calls block the emergency lines while true traffic emergencies wait," Caldwell declared. "Many times the non-emergency calls are for road and weather information or requests for the best route to some remote area or community."

Traffic emergencies are generally traffic accidents involving injury or death, blocked highways, drunk driving and highway incidents endangering lives or property," the Commissioner continued. "Non-emergency calls are to be made over the regular telephone listed for the office in the area from which the call is made."

We urge everyone to remember this and help keep the Patrol emergency phone open for real traffic emergencies," he concluded.

A grand total of 6,502,328 drivers' licenses were outstanding in California as of October 31, 1955, reports the National Automobile Club.

Oregon, in 1910, was the first state to put a tax on gasoline, according to the National Automobile Club. All states had a tax on gasoline by 1929.

March Of Dimes Raises $110,000

San Diego County probably has broken all records in its 1956 contributions to the annual March of Dimes fund-raising campaign, according to Robert B. (Bud) James, chairman of this year's drive.

James said a total of $110,000 has been received up to this date, or more than $5,000 more than recorded for the same period last year.

Of this amount, the Mothers March collected $36,100, or about $1,000 over the 1955 figure. James said that, when the drive officially ends in May,
this year's donations may soar considerably above the 1955 figure of $249,000.
